

Hosting Provider

Looking to change hosting providers?

In an effort to provide high-level service, That Web Place will take the effort out of a host transfer by coordinating all aspects of the transfer as part of our FREE seamless website transfer service.

After signing up with That Web Place, simply provide us with your previous host's login details and we will arrange a seamless transfer for you. We ensure you that your website does not suffer any downtime as a result of changing providers.

We are here to help you - feel free to contact us at any time.
